The Year of Sowing – The Gifts of the Spirit – How They Operate

God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another.

1 Peter 4:10 (NLT)

Prayer Focus: The gifts of the Spirit are a wonder of the grace of God poured out upon His Church, the Body of Christ. Every believer has gifts that God desires be used to serve others. Not for personal gain or self-promotion. And in 1 Corinthians 12: 4-6, Paul describes for us the various functions of the gifts. First, there is a variety of different gifts that God has given. The word in the greek is “charisma” from which we get the word grace. They are grace gifts. Chárisma is the instantaneous enablement of the Holy Spirit in the life of any believer to exercise a gift for the edification of others. God is able to give whatever gift is necessary at that point in time to accomplish His purposes through the believer. This is another reason for us to walk daily in intimate communion with God. Secondly, Paul says there are different administrations of the gifts. The word in the greek here is “diakonía.” The same word used for a deacon. Here, diakonía is an office or ministration in the Body of Christ meaning the labor needed for serving others. There are differences in the labor used with each of the gifts. Once again, this is not a place of comparison because each gift is a gift of grace from God to be used to serve others. Thirdly, Paul says there are differences in operations of the gifts. The word in the greek here is “enérgeō” from which we get the word energy. The meaning here is the energy of God that works through each believer to enable the use of the gift God has given. It is to be God’s energy working through each believer. The gifts of the Spirit are God’s gifts of His grace to be ministered by His power for the building up and serving of others. God has graciously given us the gifts. Are we using what He has given to us with His energy to serve others?
