

The Year of Sowing

Prayer Guide

Week 6

The Year of Sowing – Honor – The way we live

Then the way you live will always honor and please the Lord, and your lives will produce every kind of good fruit. All the while, you will grow as you learn to know God better and better.

Colossians 1:10 (NLT)

Prayer Focus: Last week we looked at the fact that honor begins with Christ, in His obedience and sacrifice. He is now seated in the place of honor with the Father. But our lives are to reflect Christ, and one of the ways we reflect Christ is by the way we live. When we live our lives in obedience, and submission to the will and purposes of God then our lives will honor and please the Lord. This does not happen by accident or without our cooperation. We must decide to live our lives each day, filled with the Holy Spirit, in communion with the Father, listening to the voice of the Spirit of God, with an attitude of humility, love, and seeking the best for others rather than ourselves. As Jesus honored the Father in His life, so we are called to honor the Father in our lives. Not just outward gestures, but inner attitudes, and heart condition. Living a life of honor is more than just a nice act toward another person once in a while. In order for us to sow honor into the lives of others, we must be living our lives in such a way that we are bringing honor to our Father in Heaven with our attitudes and our actions, even when we are alone and no one is watching.

Day 1: Reflect today on how purposeful you are in desiring to honor God in your daily life.

Day 2: Allow God to reveal to you any actions or attitudes that do not bring honor to Him.

Day 3: Dedicate yourself today to be a child of your Heavenly Father that honors Him each day.

Day 4: Intercede for your church, that the Holy Spirit will spread this truth into each heart, starting with yours.

Day 5: Pray that you can be an example of living a life of honor before your family members.

Day 6: Pray for the leaders and pastors of the other churches in your city to be filled with this truth of living to honor the Lord.

Day 7: Pray for the missionaries you know, that they would live such lives of honor before those they serve.
