

Seeking The Face of God

Prayer Guide

Week 1

The Divine Invitation

“Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart. I will be found by you, says the LORD”

Jeremiah 29:12-14 (NKJV)

Prayer Focus: Take just a moment to think about how incredible these words are. This is not an invitation from just anybody. Who is speaking here? It is the God who is the creator of all things. The One who spoke the worlds into existence. He is the One before whom the seraphim bow and worship. He is the Holy, Holy, Holy God. And this Holy, Creator God invites us to seek His Face. This means to have an intimate relationship with Him. To be close enough to His Presence to to be intimately affected by just being close to Him. Stop, contemplate the enormity of this invitation. As we begin a New Year of seeking His Face, Let us begin in holy stillness to meditate on how amazing this is that He invites us to seek Him, and He promises that if we seek Him with all our hearts... WE WILL BE FOUND OF HIM.

- Day 1: Worship God as the God who desires to have an intimate relationship with you. Today.
- Day 2: Ask the Lord to begin to reveal to your heart, how great is God’s love in this invitation.
- Day 3: Repent of the ways you have neglected these words of invitation for your own life. Let God’s Spirit search your heart for ways you have neglected Him.
- Day 4: Pray that God will stir within you a deep desire for intimacy with God in your own heart.
- Day 5: Ask God to fill you with an expectancy for the growing relationship that will develop this year.
- Day 6: Pray that your church will begin crying out for this intimate seeking of the Face of God.
- Day 7: Pray for revival and transformation that draws people to seek God’s Face in other cities, and societies.
- Day 8: Pray that the nations of the world will bow in humble submission to God—and seek Him as the only True God.